JNO. P. BARRETT, Editor.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 17, 1878.

For Congress.

We are authorized to announce JAMES F. CLAY, of Henderson, as a candidate for Congress in this, the Second Congressional District, Election in November, 1878.

We are authorized to announce A. T. GRAYCROFT, of Owensboro, as a candidate for Congress in this, the Second Congressional District, Election, November, 1878.

Senator Hill.

The Legislature adjourned on the 10th inst. after a lengthy session, in which many bills of interest were disposed of, and some of importance failed. One in which the people of this part of the State felt a very great interest, the Green and Warren River Bill, was called up in the Senate by our able and faithful Senator, Hon. Sam. E. Hill, who was complimented by the reporter of the Courier-Journal as having made a powerful speech in its favor, and, from the opposition to it, we judge our Senator must have given one of his ablest efforts to have carried it through the Senate by such a triumphant majority. This evidence of his fidelity to the interests of this portion of the State, with the whole course of his legislative career to the true interests of the State, verifies the expectations of his constituency in his ability and integrity, and we feel proud of the man whose wisdom and dignity has borne him through this arduous legislative struggle in conflict with the ablest minds of the State, to reflect honor upon his district, with the highest respect of his opponents in their encounters, and shed additional lustre upon himself. The citizens welcome Senator Hill home, conscious that he has discharged his duty and made a record worthy of remembrance and to the honor of the State. We may safely predict for Senator Hill a promising future. He is like a good tree bringing forth fruit in its season.

Stand Firmly by Your Colors

We are coming into line once more for the battle in Old Kentucky, and the greatest, most momentous question every man who has heretofore acted with and contributed to the success of the Democratic party can put to himself is, must I stand firmly by the old party, to secure all that is demanded by the true interests of the nation, against the alliance of corrupt money power with the no less corrupt Radical party? A moment's reflection will suffice to arm you with all the energy and confidence of old veterans following beneath the unfurled standard of the trusty and tried Jeffersonian Democracy. By our united efforts we gained a signal victory, after years of fierce conflicts, over false Republicanism, aided by rings and monopolies, slyly bond-holders and legions of paid officials, and with a majority in the Lower House of Congress and nearly a tie in the Senate, brought to bear the legislation of the country to the honor of the Republic and the good of the people. Must we stand fast now, to save what we have gained and accomplish all we desire, or seek in a new party to gain the same end more speedily? This is a fatal delusion, and will only end in the recovery of the Radical party to power, and place us back in the shackles of the corrupt dynasty that have nearly ruined a once thriving and industrious people. So close is the vote in many of the Congressional districts in the United States now held by the Democracy, that a few thousand votes will give the ascendancy to the Republican party. To avert this we must stand firmly and trustingly together, looking with suspicion on all new parties and independent movements to distract the Democracy and serve the opposition. The bought-up Brick Pomeroy, vacillating and ambitious Duncan, cunning and treacherous old Ben Butler, with the new National organization, is for no other purpose than to seduce the Democrats from the work they have already begun, and secure a clear majority in Congress again, that the same old corruption of money power may rule, centralization and tyranny overturn the liberties of the people, and our republican institutions become a despotism. We must not, cannot, filter, now that we are on the threshold of securing the stability and prosperity of the country by the steady charges of the old Democratic legion, with her heroic statesmen fighting in the front rank and demolishing the walls and forts of corruption, that victory may be complete and the nation redeemed. Be true to your colors, and witness the victory of your grand old party, coming up out of the storm of battle with songs of triumph and waving her banners amid the light of peace and prosperity.

Doorkeeper Polk has been dismissed from office. His chief offense seems to have been his zeal in behalf of Congressional friends. He made more appointments than the law allowed, yielding too readily to the importunities of the members. It is right that he was expelled, but what justice is there in letting those go free who instigated him to violate the law?

GRAVES' DEMOCRATS.

In Convention they instruct for Mr. Hines for Appellate Judge.

The Mass Convention at Mayfield, held on the 8th inst., for the purpose of appointing delegates to the Appellate Court, was the largest assembly of the kind ever held in that promising little city. Near one thousand people were present, and the town looked like a bee hive.

Before the opening of the Convention speeches were made by Judges Bennett and Sweeney and Col. Hines. Considerable time was occupied in drafting resolutions and getting the Convention into order, and it was near 3 o'clock when a nomination was made.

The ballots were as follows: First ballot, Hines, 360; Bennett, 280, and Sweeney, 209.

It was resolved that the hindmost in the second ballot be dropped, when another ballot was taken with the same result.

The third and last ballot followed, and was as follows: Hines, 423; Bennett, 292.

Speeches were then made by Mr. Hines and Judge Bennett.

Mr. H. S. Hale, the County Chairman, presided, and the newspaper men of the place were secretaries.

Graves casts a vote of 39 in the general convention, and the securing of this vote is quite an "item" to Mr. Hines, and he is to be congratulated.

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION OF THE FOURTH APPELLATE DISTRICT.

Henderson, the 12th of June the 11th.

As Chairman of the Democratic Committee of this district, I addressed a card on the 23d of February, to the Chairman of each County Committee asking an expression of opinion as to the time and place for holding a district convention to nominate a candidate for Appellate Judge in the place of Hon. Wm. Lindsay, whose term of office will soon expire.

To that end responses have been received from twenty-three counties, leaving six unheard from. Of that number, eleven favored the city of Henderson, eight Hopkinsville, and four, other points.

I have delayed the call of a convention, hoping that all would be heard from, but do not feel justified in further delay. In obedience to what I conceive to be the wishes of the District I now appoint the city of Henderson as the place, and to meet the views of many of the counties and three of the known candidates for the nomination, with no objections from the other, Wednesday, the 12th of June, as the time for the holding of said convention, and earnestly request the County Committees to take such action in their respective counties as will secure a fair and full representation of the Democracy in the convention.

JESSE E. FOGLE, Secretary.

The vote upon the question of calling a convention to revise the Constitution of Kentucky will not be taken next August, as many persons think, but in August, 1879. When a resolution for taking such a vote is passed by the Legislature, the Constitution provides that it shall be taken at "the next general election which shall be held for representatives to the General Assembly."

The Democratic Union county, met on Monday, the 8th inst., and instructed for Judge Caswell Bennett, as first choice, and Judge Geo. W. Williams as second choice, for Appellate Judge.

Mr. Sam T. Spencer, Saffron Hill, Brookridge county, Kentucky, a former pupil of ours in our pedagogic days, called on us this week and subscribed for the HERALD.

J. L. Collins, agent for Chess & Wynd, Louisville, Kentucky, made another large shipment of staves from Elm, last Monday. Seventy-five thousand staves was the number shipped. This firm has twenty cars of staves shipped per week over the P. & E. R. R.

Crownell Lodge, No. 420 A. Y. M., are arranging to have a celebration on the 24th of June, 1878, the proceeds to go to the benefit of the Widows and Orphans' Home, Louisville, Ky.

Old Uncle Wm. Bryant, of No. Creek vicinity, made a speech last Saturday on the highway to the road hands on temperance. He acquitted himself quite well for the first attempt.

We had the pleasure of a call from Rev. J. C. Crabtree, now at Prince of Wales, Beckridge county, but formerly a citizen of this county, on Monday last. He is in fine health, and is a warm friend of the Herald.

One of the "limbs of the law" and a "smoked Yankee" had a little unpleasantness last Sunday. The said limb was caught by the spirit of tangitoot, and brought on the engagement, and got the draw-drawn from his prominent proboscis by a collision with the extremity of the right arm of said colored individual.

Our old friend and boyhood playmate, John B. Hunter, called on us last week, and let $1.50 for the Herald. He was on his way to Evansville with a raft of logs and got rather badly, though not seriously, hurt, above here, by getting caught between the raft and a log-post, and squeezed it up a little.

Hartford society can boast of another young lady, Miss Anna Fogg, relative of Jesse E. and Lelia A. Fogg. She reached here about eleven o'clock Sunday night. Her advent was not entirely unexpected, and Dr. J. E. Padgett was appointed as a committee of reception. Miss Anna will probably make this her future home.

While Edson has moved his jewelry shop to Dave Merton's furniture store, near the Hartford House, where he will be glad to see his friends and all others who may need watches, clocks and jewelry repaired. You can do better by calling on him than to go elsewhere.

Mr. J. Warren Barnett wants it distinctly understood that he is a sure money candidate for assessor. He has had considerable experience in business affairs of different kinds, and would not doubt get up a good tax list if elected. Give him a chance.

Mr. Thos. M. Her would like to be sent to Jail for four years by the people of this county. He says he has done enough to deserve being sent there, and waits to know whether the people will send him or not. Read his announcement.

We omitted last week to note the return of Mr. F. W. Griffin. He left for Elizabethtown on the 6th inst., after having made a considerable stay with friends and relatives here. We regretted his departure, for we enjoyed his good company here very much.

Our Senator, Hon. Sam E. Hill, reached home last week from the long and tedious Legislative session, looking as well as could be expected, in fact, we believe the stay at the Capitol this winter has improved his already handsome appearance. He went to work at once on reaching home, and is laboring very hard to get ready for the approaching term of circuit court.

Mr. Samuel Ralph died last Monday at his residence two miles south east of Taylor Fields. He had been laid at work that day, and from some unknown cause came in about four o'clock and threw himself on the bed beside his sick wife, and in less than five minutes was dead without making known to her or any one else his illness whatever. He died of apoplexy.

On Tuesday night of last week the dwelling of Mr. J. C. Tarns, near Cool Springs church, was struck by lightning, causing considerable damage to building and furniture. Mr. Tarns was from home, his boy with him, and in consequence the children had gone into the other end of the house with the mother and were thus saved from death. If Mr. Tarns and son had been at home a terrible loss of life would certainly have been the result.

One car load of Union time on hand which I will sell at $1.25 per single barrel or $1.17 1/2 per barrel in lots of 10 tons or more. I. P. BARNARD, Beaver Dam.

Rev. T. E. Richey, editor of the Temperance Advance, Princeton, Ky., paid us a visit this week. He, and family, have just recovered from a long and serious illness.

If you ever expect to have good luck, become rich, be elected to office, marry well, live long or be happy, and are indebted to us for subscription, job work, notes, accounts, or fees, your expectations will be vain unless you at once pay us what you owe us. Don't you you forget it, now.

Dogs have been killing sheep recently in the Centerville vicinity, and the farmers retaliated on the dogs. Result: Five sheep gone to Heaven; four dogs gone to Hell—the bone yard.

Mr. R. B. Johnson, who lives on this side of Green river, a few miles from South Carrollton, has a cow that last year dropped twin lambs with two days difference in their ages, and this year she dropped twins again with eight days difference in their ages. Eggs and lambs are all doing well.

On our first page will be found Dr. J. W. Meador's explanation. There were many erroneous statements going the rounds in regard to the reports of the overdraft amounts of millions, ranging from $20 to $80. We called attention to this error particularly with a view to give Dr. Meador a chance to give publicity to the facts, which he has done, and our readers can now see them.

An old man, friendless, and consequently moneyless, clad in thread worn clothes, and his features deeply furrowed by the hand of sorrow and time, sat upon the doorstep on the different streets last Sunday, and feasted his dim eyes upon the gay throng passing hither and thither. All seemed happy, for want and misery were unknown to them—and so was charity. But God provides for his creatures, and two little girls, May Moseley and Jessie Small, whose young hearts were touched by the warm hand of mercy, saw the friendless wanderer, and supplying themselves with a bountiful meal seated themselves beside the old man upon the street until he ate.

That was a beautiful picture—innocence administering to the wants of old, old age, and God will bless them, for such acts are rare, even in this land of plenty and charity.

Hartford will probably soon have a bank. The proper legislation was had by the Legislature, in 1876, and the following named gentlemen are the incorporators:

Z. W. Griffin, H. D. McHenry, J. F. Collins, J. A. Thomas, J. F. Austin, Edmund Rowe, S. C. McElroy, J. B. Wells.

Shares of stock will be $100 each, and 250 shares are required before organizing.

Dr. H. S. Woods, of Litchfield, was with us during the past two weeks, practicing his profession, dentistry. We found him to be a pleasant, affable gentleman, and while here he did a good deal of work, which, so far as we have heard, gives satisfaction. He will be here again on the first Monday in June next, and will remain a few days at the Hartford House. See his advertisement elsewhere, in which he guarantees satisfaction.

Miss Bettie Cook made a very narrow escape last Saturday evening. She was thrown from a horse, and fell under the horse and he stepped on one side of her face. The horse was newly shod, and it is believed he stepped a little farther over, might probably have disfigured her for life or killed her. The fall stunned her considerably. She is all right again, except the cut in her face and on one finger, which are her lasting injuries.

If you wish to have an Everyday of Sunday suit of clothes made to order be sure to have this done by J. Winter & Co. Merchant Tailors, corner of Third and Market streets, Louisville. Their prices are very low—our Sunday suit originated in their establishment.

Frank Westerfield and Loyd Westerfield, of Bartlett's precinct near Westfield, were drowned one day last week. They had been out hunting and aimed to cross Rough creek at Indian Ford on a small craft, belonging to J. L. Miller. The current was swift and ran up on the upper side of the craft and expized it. Frank went under and was a long time coming up, but finally came up and got out. Loyd clung to the craft and finally made his way to the shore. They lost their guns and were glad to get out that well.

I learn that it is being circulated through the county that I had a late enacted, during the late session of the General Assembly, exempting the citizens of Hartford from the payment of poll-tax for county levy purposes. Such is not the case, and I ask a suspension of judgment till I can prepare a card explaining the charter for the town of Hartford, which I did have passed through the Senate, and which Dr. Meador passed through the House, our reason for passing it, and all the facts connected therewith, and when the public get to understand the matter it will be found that there has been "much ado about nothing." I will explain the matter in next week's Herald, and in the meantime, I want it distinctly understood that the people of Hartford are yet liable to poll tax.

Change of Time.

The appointment of Rev. W. W. Cook to preach a sermon on Baptism at Equalty church, Ohio county, has been changed from the fourth Sunday to the third Sunday in April, which will be the 21st day of April—next Sunday Mr. Cook, we understand, is well posted on this question, and his sermon will be very entertaining.

Warning Mourning.

Jailer E. L. Wise and B. S. Foster had a difference of opinion last Friday night, and Wise has been wearing mourning about his eyes ever since. Foster was fined $10 and costs.

ALMOST KILLED.

Mr. William Phillips receives serious injuries by a fall from a window in the "Herald" Office.

The Herald office was the scene Monday evening of a most heart-rending and terrible accident. Mr. Wm. Phillips, a young man of this place, had come into the office, and after passing compliments with the compositor, seated himself in an open window near one of the presses which was then running at the greatest speed that man power could propel it, and scarcely had he seated himself until one of his feet became entangled in the fly-wheel, when he was instantly thrust backward through the window upon the pavement below, a distance of ninety feet, alighting on the back of his head and shoulder. He was carried, unconscious, into a drug store, and all the medical aid of the town instantly summoned, all of whom pronounce his case a very dangerous one. It is feared that he is seriously injured internally. His right arm was badly shattered. Mr. Phillips is indeed a model young man, and is very much liked by the entire populace of Hartford, all of whom are in great sympathy with his aged and almost heart-broken mother.

City-made Shoes of nice quality, at low prices, at E. SMALL'S.

Grand Jury Meetings.

It is our recent Legislature had worked as earnestly and efficiently as our Ohio county Grand Jury did, they would have received less exhortations from the press than they did.

The Grand Jury returned 41 indictments. The following is a list of the indictments for the different offenses:

Forfeiture; 1; burglary; 1; indecent exposure of person; 1; breach of peace; 4; horse-stealing on highway; 2; keeping tipping house; 2; disturbing religious worship; 3; assault and battery; 3; gambling on premises of another; 3; giving liquor to minors; 1; carrying concealed deadly weapons; 4; perjury; 1; keeping a bawdy house; 1; petit larceny; 1; shooting with intent to kill; 1; stabbing in heat of passion; 1.

This will make good picking for Joe Haycraft.

Thief Captured.

On last Friday Mr. H. M. Austin, of Calhoun, and Jerry O'Leary, of Henderson county, passed through here with a man by the name of Alexander Peters and his wife and two children, and a two horse wagon and team. Peters was the wagon and team on Sunday, the 7th inst. from Mr. O'Leary, who lives five miles east of Henderson, and with his family left out traveling at night and having up in day time. Mr. O'Leary pursued, and getting on his track and finding he was coming in this direction, and having heard of the reputation of Mr. Austin as a thief catcher, he came by for him, and they followed on and caught their man near Stewart & Martin's store, a few miles from Crownell in this county. The man had traded the wagon to Henry Westbrook, of this county, for another wagon. He said he was trying to get back to Canada, where he claims to be from. His wife is in a very peculiar condition—to be traveling about, as the prospect of another child having a thief for a father is very good.

He passed by the name of Campbell in order for a few years board at South's Hotel, Hartford, Ky. The fact is, it is a fellow, from the fact, he is after him, he had as well return and give himself up, for he never fails to get 'em.

Hot For the Nanny Noll.

Mr. F. W. Pirtle and James Sullenger started for New Orleans, last Monday, with a flat-bow loaded with 28,000 staves. The boat is manned by the following crew: Sam, Haden Livermore, pilot; B. S. Foster, Wm. Stone, Harriet, J. W. Tillery, Rosine; Melvin Fieener and Marsh Osley, of Butler county; Frank Duke, colored, of Ohio, cook. We wish them a bon voyage and safe return.

A Severe Fall Storm.

Mr. T. F. Johnson, of Wilson's Mills neighborhood, reports a very heavy hail storm in that vicinity, on Tuesday evening of last week. In some instances it burst the shingles and boards off of house-roofs.

Ladies, go to E. Small's Trade Palace, Hartford, Ky., and see those handsome, stylish Linen Dresses.

I. P. BARNARD, Beaver Dam, Ky.

A THIRTY DOLLAR Schenck's Mandrake Pills is sure to prevent an attack of biliousness, when a short neglect of the warning symptoms may develop a serious case of fever, either bilious, intermittent or typhoid.

Schenck's Mandrake Pills remove all causes of biliousness, promptly start the secretions of the liver, and give a healthy tone to the entire system. It is no ordinary discovery in medical science to have found a harmless cure for this stubborn complaint, which accomplishes all the results heretofore produced by a tree of castor oil, a mineral justly dreaded by mankind, and acknowledged to be destructive in the extreme to the human system. That the properties of certain vegetation comprise all the virtues of castor oil, and of the injurious effects of calomel or other poisons. The secretion of bile is regulated as will be seen by the altered color of the stools, the disappearance of the yellow complexion and the clearing of the tongue.

Ample directions for use accompany each box of pills. Prepared only by J. H. Schenck & Son, at their principal place of business, 215 North Second Street, Philadelphia. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by all druggists and dealers.

In Memoriam.

Mr. Eliza Tally, wife of J. F. Hayworth, died on the 19th of March, 1878. She was born March 1839, and joined the Baptist church in 1848. She was an excellent woman, a good neighbor and a true Christian, and had but few, if any, enemies. She was a devoted wife. Near her close of life she gave evidence of her readiness to depart for a home with Christ. She died of that terrible disease, consumption. She leaves husband, mother, sisters and brothers, to mourn her loss. Her funeral was preached on the 21st of March by the writer, to a large audience. To friends and relatives we say: "Try to meet your loved one in Heaven, where parting will be no more and disease can never enter." None be to the memory of sister Eliza Tally.
